C. On 22 May, Ukraine Party Secretary Kirichenko, in commemorating the Ukraine anniversary, conspicuously omitted any mention of Malenkov while describing Khrushchev as "one of the most outstanding leaders" sent in to assist the liberation of the Ukraine. In the same connection he listed the following as heroes of Ukrainian liberation: Stalin, Molotov, Sverdlov, Dzerzhinski, Frunze, Krushchev, Voroshilov and Kaganovich.

D. Plaudits for Khrushchev, somewhat out of context, included in speeches of Kazakh and Uzbek delegates to the celebration.

III. Significance of Khrushchev's new public prestige.

- A. A trend contrary to collectivity concept.
- B. Reflects adversely on Malenkov's status.
- C. Logical to expect move on Malenkov's part to counter this trend.
- D. Continuation of trend could only suggest that Khrushchev's role is greater than Malenkov's.
